I am the president of New England Watercolor Society, Copley Artist with the Copley Society, Rhode Island Watercolor Society signature member, and a Gallery Artist with South Shore Art Center and Concord Art Association. I have worked as a consultant for the Carlyle Hotel and the Gramercy Park Hotel in NYC. I have juried and curated exhibits, taught watercolor and receive frequent awards for my work.

I was born in New York City, immersed in art and architecture. My father was an architect and my mother an artist, it was all about the visuals. I went to Pennsylvania Academy of the Fine Arts and then to Boston University where I studied Urban Planning and Architecture. After practicing urban planning, I returned to painting, inspired by my son's Crayola watercolor paint box. I became intrigued by the medium and have been painting watercolors ever since, the city innately my subject.
