

Lisa G Bailey paints & teaches, using multiple mediums, at her home in Franklin, MA. She has a BA in Art & Interior Design and works professionally in most mediums. Lisa is intrigued by watercolor because it explores the physical phenomenon of volume color. In watercolor, Lisa created a unique style that she calls 'Colorweave'. Her artwork is the very nature of light, movement and layering of color in an abstract form with a variety of subject matter.

Signature Memberships:

New England Watercolor Society
Rhode Island Watercolor Society

Magazine Publications:

Studio Visit, Vol 45

Recent National Exhibits:

2020 North American Open Juried Exhibition, New England Watercolor Society - 2020

All New England Open 2020, Cape Cod Art Center

Spring Open National Juried Exhibition, Cape Cod Art Center - 2020

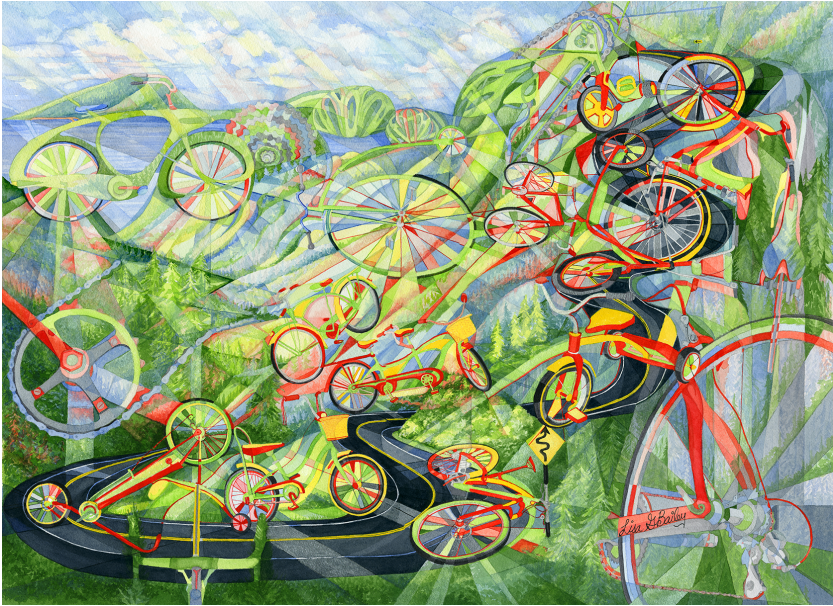

The Providence Art Club National Open Juried Exhibition, The Providence Art Club - 2020

Sense of Space Open Juried Exhibition, Cape Cod Art Center - 2020

24th National Watermedia Competition, Rhode Island Watercolor Society - 2019

Bay State Open, Cape Cod Art Center - 2019

International Exhibits & Awards:

Scapes, Gallery 25N - 2019

Received 2nd Place Award

Local Views, Gallery 25N - 2019

Select National Awards:

All New England Open 2020, Cape Cod Art Center

Bay State Open 2018, Cape Cod Art Center

The National 2017, Cape Cod Art Center

13th Biennial North American Open, NEWS

