

Ann Trainor Domingue

Contact: domingue@comcast.net

Goffstown, NH AnnTrainorDomingue.com

AnnTrainorDomingueblog.com

Watercolor has always held a special place in my heart—from my early years of dropping color into water-filled baby food jars, to discovering beautiful paint palette boxes, to working in plein air and in my studio. I enjoy working with both transparent watercolor and gouache combining watermedia with inks and acrylic to create colorful, expressive work. I simply love watching watercolors flow uncontrollably creating something unexpected.

BACKGROUND:

- Copley Artist, Copley Society of Art Boston, since 2011
- New England Watercolor Society Signature Member 2107
- NH Art Association member since 1997
- 25+ years in marketing as art director, designer, illustrator
- 15 years teaching variety of watermedia and mixed media classes at Currier Art Center, Manchester, NH; New Hampshire Institute of Art (NHIA); Granite State College
- Private lessons in watercolor and drawing; available for workshops
- Artist Mentor in technique, process and overall marketing
- Professional painter—acrylic & mixed media, watercolor
- Mentored in watercolor by Al Albrektson, Providence, RI