I am on the board of directors as treasurer of New England Watercolor Society, artist member of the Copley Society, the Rhode Island Watercolor Society, and a Gallery Artist with South Shore Art Center, and Concord Art Association. I have worked as a consultant for the Carlyle Hotel and the Gramercy Park Hotel in NYC. I have juried and curated exhibits, taught watercolor, and received frequent awards in national shows.

I was born in New York City, immersed in art and architecture. My father was an architect and my mother an artist and actress; while growing up it was all about the visuals. I went to Pennsylvania Academy of the Fine Arts and then to Boston University where I studied Urban Planning and Architecture. After practicing urban planning for a number of years, I returned to painting, inspired by my son's Crayola watercolor paint box. I became intrigued by the medium and have been painting watercolors ever since.
