

Dawn Evans Scaltreto

Dawn Evans Scaltreto is a professional fine artist, muralist and illustrator whose clients include the Boston Children's Hospital, the Boston Museum of Science and Illuminations, Inc. She became a signature member of the New England Watercolor Society in 2009 and a Rockport Artist in 2012. A resident of Watertown, Massachusetts for 30 years, she is active in many local arts organizations including Watertown Art Association and the Arsenal Center for the Arts where she is a studio artist. She teaches watercolor, acrylic and oil painting at the Watertown, Waltham and Brighton Senior Centers, and many adult, youth and intergenerational arts programs and courses. Her recent projects include creating new installation artwork at the Boston Children's Hospital and working on her instructional watercolor cable show, "Watercolorwhirled!". Her work has been featured on WCVB's Chronicle and in print, including The Artist's Magazine and Watercolor Magic magazine. Her work may be found on the Web at dawnarts.com.

